

PRISONERS OF THE IRANIAN REGIME: LESSONS FOR LAWYERS

Internationally renowned Drs. Aresh and Kamiar Alaei will discuss being arrested and imprisoned while treating HIV/AIDS patients in their native Iran.

Their sister, Mahnaz Alaei, will discuss the impact of the ordeal on their family, and Dr. Javier Vasquez of the Pan-American Health Organization will also speak. Albany Law professors James Gathii, Mary Lynch and Alicia Ouellette will comment on lessons for lawyers, and Professor Stephen Gottlieb will moderate.

The event is free and open to the public, though seating is limited.

Wednesday,

FEB. 1, 2012

4:00 – 7:00 p.m.

Room 200

For more information, contact Hanok George at hgeorge@albanylaw.edu

ALBANY LAW SCHOOL

Sponsored by the Albany Law chapter of Amnesty International, the Diversity Office, the Faculty Enrichment Committee, the Albany Law School Civil Liberties Union and the International Law Society.